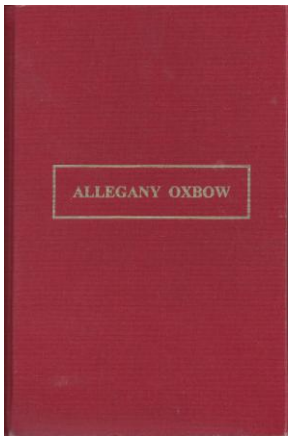
ALLEGANY OXBOW ORDER FORM

Allegany Oxbow: A History of Allegany State Park and the Allegany Reserve of the Seneca Nation by Charles E. Congdon



"The geologists say there was formerly a shallow sea of salt water over all this area; that the conglomerate rocks remaining on the hills are what is left of the Devonian deposits once covering the country at an elevation somewhat above the tops of the present hills."

Name_____

Address_____

City_____ State_____ Zip_____

Quantity	Title	Price	Total
	Allegany Oxbow	$5.00
	Shipping: $3.50		$3.50
	Total
Payment	Cash / Check
Make checks payable to: Salamanca Historical Society

Order by Phone, Mail, or Email

SALAMANCA AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
125 MAIN STREET, PO BOX 23
SALAMANCA, NY 14779

716-945-2946

EMAIL: SALAHISTSOC125@HOTMAIL.COM

TABLE OF CHAPTERS

I. Early History of Allegany State Park
II. Organization of Allegany State Park
III. The Headwaters of the Allegany
IV. First Settlement at Cornplanter
V. New Arrow's Old Town
VI. Genesunguhta, Old Town
VII. Philip Tome and Dug Out Boats
VIII. Peter Crouse and His Descendants
IX. Christian Missions on Allegany Reservation
X. Onoville to Quaker Bridge, Bone Run & Hotchkiss Hollow
XI. Tunesassa
XII. Coldspring
XIII. Coldspring Continued
XIV. New Years at Coldspring, 1946
XV. Indian Names and Stories
XVI. Wa-de-jeh and Ne-ga-ne-ga-ah. Only for those who know
XVII. Crick's Run and Ge-hai-ee-neh
XVIII. Red House
XIX. Blacksnake, The Last Seneca Chief Warrior
XX. Great Valley and Little Valley Creeks
XXI. Tunungwant
XXII. Chickasawanee
XXIII. Oil Spring at Cuba